President's Report

I appreciate your confidence in electing me to another term on the Board of Directors. It is an honor to serve the members of this wonderful organization. I look forward to working with the existing board members and newly elected. I welcome Kyle Ford and Pam Hess who will serve three-year terms. Dave Ayers will serve a one-year term filling the vacancy of a resigned board member. Robert Eicher was elected to a two year term. Their role on the board will begin in early January.

Now for the difficult part of my message. Two extremely valuable members will not be on the new board. Glenn Yoder has served the maximum nine years on the board. He has served in various capacities including First Vice President the past two years. I have relied heavily on Glenn with his ties to members across the US. He has often been my sounding board for ideas to improve our organization.

Kendall Vaitkus has only served one year on the board but has become our hero in Publications, Promotion and Website. Her knowledge and ambition has strengthened our ability to keep members informed. She will sorely be missed on board calls. However, she will remain active as Chair of those committees. She also is contracted to publish the bimonthly Horse Bits newsletter. As I hope you have noticed in the recent publications the breadth of information, ability of members to advertise at a low rate and enjoy stories. Glenn and Kendall thank you on behalf of the entire board for your hard work and contribution to the American Haflinger Registry.

I look forward to meeting with the new board during our annual face-to-face meeting to develop strategic goals for the coming year. We have a lot of work to accomplish, and it will take a coherent group to ensure the accomplishment of those goals.

AHR Meeting Minutes 2024

September - AHR Board Meeting Minutes - 9/17/24, Submitted by Tara Williamson

The meeting was called to order by Brian.

The minutes for the previous meeting had been relayed via email, and Brian called for any corrections, or move to approve. Erwin moved to approve the minutes and Kendal seconded. Motion Carried.

The treasurers report was given. Stacey had requested information regarding a Kim Morrisee, as she was due a refund of sales tax from the auction and her address had come back undelivered. Kathy did some research and suggested a PO box which would then be given to Stacey to try.

Brian called for a motion to approve the treasurers report. Kathy so moved, and Anne-Laure seconded. Motion passed.

Futurity- Erwin reported that there were 26 entries for the Sport Futurity. Wade Wilcox will be the photographer.

Inspection- 6 Horses are committed with 4 being Mares, 1 Stallion, and 1 Gelding.

Expecting to start at 9am with measuring and then start the inspection about 10:30am and running until 1pm roughly.

Publications- newsletter is laid out, almost ready to print. 28 pages roughly expected for October. Social Media is going well with consistent posts and a significant uptick in engagement. The California Inspection results, hitch futurity, Twin Birch show results and a couple member-written articles will be featured.

Website- Some things came to light regarding the business that was hosting our website that instigated a needed change. Through a contact of Erwin's, we can have the site hosted now for free, and the previous website host is refunding us $1600 as well as providing the back ups of the site. The new company seems to be going smoothly, however we have asked very little of them to date. Passwords will be changed once we are confident that the transition is complete.

December will be the next newsletter, hopefully featuring member show results and accomplished goals that they would like to share.

Election- election materials are to the printer, and they are working on printing, stuffing and mailing.

In-Person Meeting- Hoping to schedule at the Cleveland Marriott for the beginning of November.

Old Business- Chupps were advised that the contract would not be renewed to send the newsletter through the Halfinger Journal.

They did not respond. No further business. Kathy moves to dismiss and Erwin Seconds. Meeting Dismissed.

October - AHR Board Meeting Minutes – 10/15/24, Submitted by Kendall Vaitkus

Brian called meeting to order at 8:02pm. Everyone present. Tara read minutes from August meeting as a recap. No questions. Erwin motions to approve minutes. All in favor, motion carried.

Treasurer's report: No questions on this report. Kathie motioned to approve, it was seconded and all were in favor. Motion carried.

Futurity: Erwin said they said about 25 horses. Everything went fine and people seemed to enjoy themselves.

Inspection: Kathie said there were 5 horses (3 mares, a stallion and a gelding). Results have been updated in digital horse and on the website. Certificates have also gone out.

Publications: All good with the October Newsletter. It was emailed on 10/1/24 and should be in mailboxes this week. Next project is the 2025 calendar which brought several submissions. The new website company (Infinite Digital Solutions) is doing this completely free for the AHR since we are a non-profit. They are very nice and Kendall is excited to work with them. They said they are willing to do all website projects big and small.

Nominations and Ballot questions: Brian has had 3 calls about the Eastern Director vote being on the same ballot as the At Large Directions. Tara explained that the Eastern votes coming back will be separated out by their return address and counted separately. Then they will be added in to the whole pile to be counted for the At Large ballots. Two CPAs will be used and each will count both piles separately. The issue of voting for 3 directors at large vs 4 has been addressed on social media and on our website. Tara will reach out to the Suttons to see if they will oversee the CPA vote counting.

Old business: Brian is trying to set up the in-person board meeting. It's been difficult with everyone's schedule and is looking like we will need to push it to January. Everyone agreed.

Motion to adjourn made by Erwin and Seconded by Robert. Meeting adjourned at 8:28pm.

AHR Election Results

The AHR Board of Directors would like to thank all the candidates that ran in our 2024 election. It was a fantastic group and made voting tough. We hope to encourage even more members to run next year so we can continue to make the Registry the best we can! Please feel free to contact anyone on the board about getting involved by volunteering on our many committees!

A huge CONGRATULATIONS to those who were voted in! We look forward to you serving the membership!

AHR Election Results

Meet Pam Hess!

Everyone told me that I would be very busy in retirement, and I am happy to report that they were right! On July 1, 2024, I retired from a long career as an equine veterinarian and most recently for fourteen years as a college professor and Dean of the School of Equine Studies at Lake Erie College. My days are filled with Haflingers! My husband Curtis and I have seven Haflingers and we board two other horses at our farm. We have a small nine-acre horse farm in Chardon in Geauga County in Northeastern Ohio. As we get older, the daily care of all of these horses takes a little more time and a lot more effort. We also make all of our own hay so our summers are filled with time on the tractors in the hay field that we lease. We enjoy carriage driving with our horses, and participate in combined driving events, an occasional pleasure show and our local county fair. We have always done draft hitch driving at The Great Geauga County Fair. I drive single and pair, and Curtis drives all the multiples up through 6-up and even did 8-up for a special occasion! We currently have a weanling and a yearling that we bred, so we spend lots of time in the barn training these youngsters. We are very excited to be planning a trip to the World Haflinger Show in Ebbs, Austria in May 2025. This will be our first trip to Austria, and we just can't wait to see all the beautiful Haflingers there at the World Show 2025!

I have been an AHR member for nearly 20 years. I want to give back to the AHR and our Haflinger community. Our Registry is not thriving, and we need to work together to ensure that the AHR and our beloved Haflingers continue to grow and thrive in this country. Programs that have low participation need to be re-evaluated and invigorated, and new programs need to be developed to serve our current and target membership. I hope to advance our work on Points and Awards, and provide incentives for AHR members and Haflinger owners to stay involved and promote our horses. Programs and services of the AHR need to serve ALL types of registered Haflinger owners, not just a few. We have a lot of work to do, and I am honored to be at your service as a new Board member.

Pam Hess, DVM
Chardon, OH

Meet Kyle Ford!

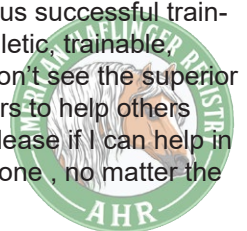

Before telling you a little about myself, I wanted to first thank you for the honor of being chosen to serve on the American Haflinger Registry Board. It is an honor, and I am humbled by your trust. It will be my complete focus to work to promote this worthy breed and focus on what is best for ALL AHR members.

My background is pretty much all equine focused. My first two horses were purchased when a family friend agreed to sell me the gelding I wanted, for less than he was asking, only if I took the mare that was with him. At 8 years old I had negotiated my first horse deal and was thrilled. Sweet Lou was a 15-year-old quarter horse and was the horse that made me realize that horses would be an essential part of my life. For a few years I ran barrels and poles as my mom took me to draft shows trying to convince me that I should be a teamster. But when I saw Reining at the All American Quarter Horse Congress and then made a trip to Shawn Florida's, with my grandfather, where I rode a reining horse for the first time any aspirations my mom had of me being a teamster were gone. I was going to be a Reiner. My first Reiner was a horse named "Skeeter Fudge Bar." He was the first of many horses to come that I showed in my reining career. When my parents purchased their first Haflinger's I knew little of the breed, but it did not take long for me to see talent and diversity in these horses. Not to mention their incredible willingness to please. The more I was around the breed the more I saw the value in the breed. Especially after meeting my girl friend who has been involved in jumping since she was 8 years old as well. Cassie purchased a horse by the name of Appey's Oliver from a client of mine for whom I was handling the sale of the horse. This was a world that I knew nothing about and that the Haflinger breed absolutely excels in. Learning this discipline from her has been an awesome new experience.

Currently, I work for the city of Whitestown outside Indianapolis. The hours allow me to have time in the evening to train. Primarily my focus is training Haflingers, but we will occasionally take other breeds if someone needs help.

In closing, I want to express something that I feel strongly about. After riding a lot of horses with numerous successful trainers that I have had the privilege to learn from, and still learn from, I am positive that the Haflinger horse is an athletic, trainable, willing riding partner that is worth more than what the market is now dictating. It is frustrating to me that others don't see the superior value of this breed and I sincerely hope that while serving on the Board that I can assist the other Board members to help others see the true value of the Haflinger horse, and build a bright future for the breed. My phone is always on me so please if I can help in any way do not hesitate to contact me at (937)479-1521 or stop me at any event. I look forward to serving everyone, no matter the discipline.

Meet Dave Ayers!

I live in Caledonia, NY and I would be happy to talk to any member at any time. Feel free to call me at (585) 489-5647.

Marvette 2SH - Owned by Meggan & Brandon Dwyer | Bred by Whitney Davis | Ridden By Kendall Dwyer

This is my Mare, Marvette 2sh (Marvi). I've known her since February 28, 2023, and she officially became mine April 28, 2023. The beginning was difficult, as it always is. We struggled to figure each other out, but it eventually clicked. I bought her with the intention to turn her into a hunter, but she ended up being my perfect all around pony. She would take me to the moon and back if I asked her too. In the beginning of 2024, we had planned to take her to her first show. However it was unfortunately postponed due to an outbreak of strangles. Marvi went to her first show June 16, 2024 and did absolutely phenomenal. She went around all of the courses with no refusals and only one rail (out of 7 classes). After coming home, we prepared for our first major three day show, the Chagrin Hunter Jumper Classic. She did phenomenal schooling, and jumped a 10 over every jump. The second day of the show was our warmup day (18in) which she did amazing on. She again, jumped a ten every time!! By the third day of the show, Marvi had began refusing jumps, and we were disqualified from all of our jumping rounds. She was tired of showing, and wanted to go home. After we one a third in the eq on the flat, we packed her up and went home. Once we were home, Marvi began having difficulties with her willingness to jump. She began refusing more often and was over all the most tired she had been in a long time. Marvi and I took more trips off property that didn't require her too jump. We went on a few trail rides, showed at a pleasure show (which I decided to enter in a western pleasure class), and we even took her on a few trips to my house! In August 25, 2024, we brought her to another one day schooling show. Marvi did not enjoy her time there and refused almost every jump. We made the decision to give Marvi a three month break from jumping to hopefully get her head straight. I took lessons with an amazing dressage trainer and she helped Marvi and I so much, and continues too even now. At the end of those three months, when we had just began jumping again, we decided to have her checked over by a vet. The vet found that she had mild arthritis and recommended stifle and hock injections, which we gladly agreed to do. Since the injections, Marvi has been back to her eager and energetic self. We are so happy to be jumping again, and I am so glad she's enjoying herself again. Marvi is officially back and is ready to wow the show ring more than ever.

Standard of Perfection HOF - Owned & Ridden by Katina Wilson | Bred by Susan Eicher

Summer 2024 was a season of fantastic learning experiences for both Max (Standard of Perfection HOF) and myself. After a month long refresher course with Sarah Aurchard of SAGA Equine, Max and I began preparing ourselves for the show season. My goal was to show Max in at least two Western Dressage introductory classes at a schooling show, and to improve upon the scores we received throughout the season. The Morrow County fairgrounds was not a boring place to re-introduce a green horse to the higher pressured atmosphere of a show. We survived gunshots echoing off the trees from a shooting range nearby, firefighters practicing blowing their ear-splitting sirens, and horses being coaxed into a frantic canter while lungeing beside the dressage ring...and that was just during one show! Despite all the commotion, Max began to relax as the season wound on. At the last show we scored a 70% in WDAA Introductory Test 4 and even dipped ourselves into the “grown-up” basic level 1 with a respectable 64.6%. The most exciting moment actually happened with good friend, Bonnie Van Winkle and her gorgeous Haflinger, Winona’s Rose. During the month of September, Bonnie and I planned on performing a pas de deux, or “dance of two” for a musical freestyle dressage test. Utilizing the heritage of our horses, and inspiration from “The Sound of Music” our test took many hours of practice and hard work, but the final result was nothing short of magical. 2025 will certainly require more hours in the saddle as Max and I work on fluid up and down transitions, and perhaps a musical freestyle isn’t out of the question?

KDF Show Horses 2024 in Review

ALL TERRAIN HTE was trained by KDF Show Horses in 2024 with diversity in mind. Including English, Western, Jumping, Dressage and Trail. This cool little but mighty horse was sold to an amateur adult, that keeps him trying new things. They are currently learning to do endurance riding. We would like to thank Erwin Slabaugh for entrusting ALL TERRAIN with KDF Show Horses this year.

KRUISE SUNSHINE WENFH was trained by KDF Show Horses in 2024 with diversity in mind. Specializing in English and Western, she competed in the USDF Introductory level Dressage test B earning third in a very competitive class. "Sunny" was accepted and sold at the Horseman's Select Mission Sale to a junior rider. Their plans are to do Liberty, English, Western, and have Sunny be a beginner lesson horse. We would like to thank the Wengerd family for entrusting KRUISE SUNSHINE WENFH with KDF Show Horses this year.

HIGH KOUNTRY WENFH was trained by KDF Show Horses in 2024 with diversity in mind. Specializing in English and Western she found her success in the Hunter Jumper show pen. She competed at the IHJA shows where she earned top ribbons in .65-.70 meter jumper classes. "Kountry" is now a happy broodmare and will be taking over for her mom. We would like to thank the Wengerd family for entrusting HIGH KOUNTRY WENFH with KDF Show Horses this year.

APPY'S AHLIVER WFHIL continues to be the backbone of KDF Show Horses. This year he became certified as a therapeutic riding horse for people with disabilities. "Appy" or "Potato" has also learned to be our go to horse for breaking horses in the round pen and ponying young ones outside the arenas for their first few times. All while doing these tasks, Appy and his owner have been intensely working on jumping and are planning on competing at several World Equestrian Center hunter shows this coming Spring.

Carriage Springs Farm Registered Haflingers 2024 in Review

This year was a very busy and rewarding year for our Registered Haflingers and team members of Carriage Springs Farm. To start the year, the hitch wagon was refreshed by Jake Schut to change the color from red to a multicoat of red metallic flake over black so that in the light the color changes through many shades of red; so many compliments; it was a great color choice.

March through early May had the breeding activities in full swing with foals arriving and mares being bred for next year and making decisions on who to breed in 2025.

Training and conditioning the show string started in January. Horses were ready for their first show in June, which was the Wilmington Classic at the World Equestrian Center in Wilmington, Ohio followed closely by the Northern Ohio Draft Pony Association (NODPA) Show at the Richland County Fairgrounds in Mansfield, Ohio.

July we travelled to the 25th Annual Great Lakes Haflinger Association (GLHA) Show at the Allen County Fairgrounds in Lima, Ohio and then off to the Derrer Ranch Classic at the Topeka Livestock Auction in Topeka, Indiana. Had a great experience at the Ohio State Fair where our 4 year old mare, Naoma's Nightingale HCS won Best of Haflinger Breed; our 3 year old stallion, Wagner 2SH won Grand Champion Haflinger Stallion and our 3 year old gelding Bravado's Bamm Bamm HCS was named Grand Champion Haflinger Gelding.

August started out with our first night show at the Lake County Fair in Crown Point, Indiana. What a fun experience for the horses and the team members. All of the lights of the rides and the concessions which surround the show arena made for a thrilling venue to drive the horses. The month continued with the Illinois State Fair followed immediately by the Indiana State Fair National Haflinger Draft Show in Indianapolis, Indiana. The horses did great in halter and in driving classes.

September was the LaPorte County Draft Horse Show in LaPorte, Indiana where Gale was named Best of Show, Wagner was Reserve Champion Stallion and Bamm Bamm was Champion Gelding in the halter classes. Driving classes were exciting with some great competitors in attendance. We were given the opportunity to compete at the Vernon County Fair Draft Horse Show in Viroqua, Wisconsin. The arena was the race track and it was a blast. The stands were full of fans who never stopped cheering; the weather was beautiful and the horses and team members had a great time.

The Big E National Haflinger and Hitch Championship Pony Show at The Eastern States Livestock Exposition in West Springfield, Massachusetts took place September 27-29, 2024. This was the first year Carriage Springs Farm Registered Haflingers qualified for this competition. Over a thousand miles from home made the experience a bit of an adventure; first time for a huge crab sandwich at a competition. It was delicious!! The crowds were very encouraging even as we drove across the midway on the journey to the arena.

November 15-16 was our final 2024 competition at the North American International Livestock Exposition in Louisville, Kentucky. Weather during November can be very unpredictable and stalls are not completely enclosed so when the weather is good it is something to celebrate. And this year the weather for the 2 days of competition was excellent even though the 2 days before when competitors were arriving it was pouring down rain.

The stats are 14,000 miles and 30 drives of the six horse hitch in competition and lots of ribbons and friendships made and renewed. With gratitude for a solid 2024 we look forward to an even stronger 2025 when there will be some more 3 and 4 year olds joining the hitch from our home bred herd. Thanks go to Darin Brooks, Manager and Driver, Amanda Gehri, Austin Sikora, Jake Mitchell and Tara Taft who made this all possible.

Siren's Song Farm 2024 in Review

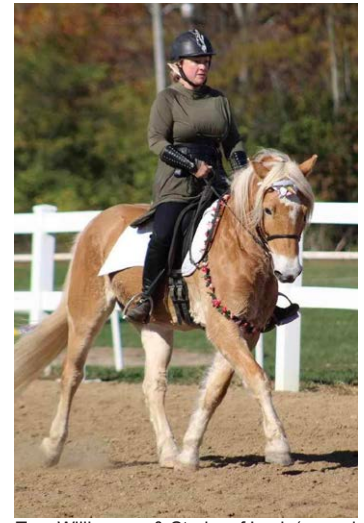

From relocating the entire barn, to winning Championships, 2024 held so many accomplishments for Siren's Song Farm! We began the process of purchasing Alpha Gold HOF and saw him finish as the Reserve Champion Stallion at the Twin Birch Show. Stroke of Luck stepped up to First Level Dressage and Wil-Von Mikas RVH stepped up to Prelim in Driven Dressage after winning the English and Western High Points, as well as a Hunter Division Championship and a Second in the Hunter Derby at the Twin Birch Show. Kendall and Will Beat the Storm of 2s reveled in their Versatility High Point at the Twin Birch Show, proceeded to solidify their Driven Dressage performance with some nice scores and made their show debut in Second Level Dressage. Her other gelding, North Star LLRH put in some serious trail miles and began schooling First Level movements. Raegan and A-Rod the Great enjoyed their Youth High Point and Hunter Division Championship at the Twin Birch Show, and followed that up with their debut in Driven Dressage and progressing to First Level Dressage for the first time! Walt borrowed Will Beat the Storm of 2s to compete in his first ever Combined Test where they finished second on their very solid dressage score. Kenny and Jess enjoyed many trail miles with a few different horses. Colleen added one of our lovely mares to her own barn, and the littlest members of our farm family, Emi and Camryn, spent a great deal of time brushing horses and riding A-Rod the Great. They received their first english saddle this fall, and are hoping Santa will bring paddock boots and lots of cute pony stuff!

My Friend Honey and the Golden Meadow

Written by Michelle Harper & based loosely on her own Hafinger, Honey

My name is Emma, and I live in a little white house with a big red barn, right next to an Amish family. The Yoders are our neighbors, and their farm is much bigger than ours. They have chickens, cows, a vegetable garden that seems to stretch forever, and a beautiful Hafinger mare named Honey. Honey is golden like the sunshine, with a mane as white as snow, and she's the sweetest horse I've ever met.

Every morning before school, I watch Mr. Yoder hitch Honey to a plow. Honey is so strong! She pulls that heavy plow through the dirt like it's nothing. I always wave to her from my window, and she flicks her ears as if she's saying, "Good morning, Emma!" After school, I run to the fence between our yards and call out to Honey. She trots over to me, and I give her an apple or a carrot that I've saved from my lunch. Her soft muzzle tickles my hand, and I giggle every time. I think we're best friends.

Even though Honey works hard every day, she always seems happy. But sometimes, when I'm petting her after a long day of work, I wonder if she ever dreams of something more. "Do you ever want to go on an adventure, Honey?" I whispered one afternoon as I stroked her soft mane. "I bet there's a magical place out there just for you." Honey nickered softly, nudging me as if to say she did.

The next day was Saturday, and I didn't have school. After breakfast, I went outside to see Honey. Mr. Yoder was already out in the fields, but Honey wasn't with him. Instead, she was in her pasture, standing at the far end, looking toward the woods. I climbed up on the fence and called to her, but she didn't move. She just stood there, staring into the trees like she was waiting for something.

I was curious. Honey usually trotted right over when I called her, but today she seemed different—like she was thinking about something important. I hopped down from the fence and walked over to her. As I got closer, Honey turned and looked at me, then turned back toward the woods. It was like she was saying, "Come with me, Emma." I knew I had to follow her. I slipped through the gap in the fence that only I knew about and walked up to Honey. She nuzzled my cheek, then started to walk toward the woods. I followed her, my heart beating fast with excitement. Where was she taking me?

The woods were cool and shady, and the ground was soft under my feet. Honey walked ahead of me, her golden coat shining even in the dim light. I could hear the birds singing high above, and the leaves rustling in the gentle breeze. It felt like we were the only two in the whole world.

We walked for a while, the trees growing thicker around us. I had never been this deep in the woods before, but I wasn't scared. Honey seemed to know exactly where she was going. She didn't hesitate, didn't stop to look back. I trusted her completely.

Finally, after what felt like forever, the trees began to thin out, and I saw a bright light ahead. Honey picked up her pace, and I hurried to keep up. We stepped out of the woods and into a wide, open clearing—and that's when I saw it. The Golden Meadow.

It was more beautiful than anything I had ever seen. The grass was the greenest green, dotted with little white and yellow flowers that swayed in the breeze. A clear, sparkling stream wound its way through the meadow, and the air smelled sweet, like honey and wildflowers. The sun was shining so brightly that everything seemed to glow, and the whole meadow looked like it was made of gold.

Honey walked into the meadow and started to graze on the sweet grass. I stood at the edge, my mouth wide open in amazement. It was like we had stepped into a dream.

I took a few steps forward, feeling the soft grass under my shoes. The air was so fresh, and the sound of the stream was like music. I couldn't believe such a place existed, hidden away in the woods. I wondered how Honey had found it. Maybe she had always known it was here, waiting for the right time to show me.

I spent the rest of the afternoon in the meadow with Honey. I made a daisy chain and put it around her neck, and she looked so pretty with the flowers against her golden coat. I dipped my fingers in the cool water of the stream and watched as little fish darted between the rocks. I lay down in the grass, looking up at the sky, which was the bluest blue, without a single cloud.

As the sun began to set, the light turned a deep, warm gold, making the meadow even more magical. I knew it was time to go home, but I didn't want to leave. I stood up and walked over to Honey, who was still grazing peacefully.

"It's time to go, Honey," I said softly, running my hand along her smooth neck. "But we'll come back, won't we?"

Honey lifted her head and nuzzled my shoulder, her brown eyes warm and gentle. I knew she understood.

We made our way back through the woods, following the same path we had taken. The sun was low in the sky, casting long shadows through the trees. By the time we reached the edge of the pasture, the stars were just beginning to twinkle in the sky.

I hugged Honey tightly before slipping back through the fence. She nickered softly, her breath warm against my cheek, and then she trotted off to the barn for the night.

When I got home, my parents were just setting the table for dinner. "Where have you been, Emma?" Mom asked, smiling as she put a plate of food on the table.

"I was with Honey," I said, a big smile on my face. "She showed me something amazing."

That night, as I lay in bed, I couldn't stop thinking about our adventure. Honey wasn't just a hard-working horse—she was my magical friend. I felt so lucky to know her, to have shared that special secret. I knew that whenever I needed a place to dream or to feel peaceful, Honey would take me back to the Golden Meadow.

And from that day on, whenever I looked out my window and saw Honey working in the fields, I smiled, knowing that there was so much more to her than just pulling a plow. She was a horse full of wonder and adventure, and together, we would have many more magical days in the Golden Meadow.

The End.
